The book

THE WEST RAND JIVE CATS BOXING CLUB by Lauren Liebenberg [£14.99, Virago] During a stifling late-'50s summer in Johannesburg, two 12-year-old boys learn about loss of innocence, loyalty and friendship in a mining community obsessed with boxing and rock 'n' roll. A raw and moving read. ☞ Out on 7 April

One to watch

ANNA CALVI Compared to PJ Harvey, praised by Nick Cave and named by Karl Lagerfeld as his muse, Anna Calvi was cited in the BBC's 'Sound of 2011' round-up. She cuts a striking figure with her guitar, slicked hair and red lips - Chanel's front row beckons... ☞ Anna Calvi's self-titled album is out now

The visual treats
BEAUTY IN ALL ITS FORMS The V&A Museum's 'The Cult of Beauty: The Aesthetic Movement 1860-1900' exhibition explores 19th century ideas of fashion, art and living beautifully (from 2 April). The Sony World Photography Awards and Festival at Somerset House (from 26 April) features photos of fashion, landscapes, wildlife and travel. Pick your winner. ☞ vam.ac.uk, worldphoto.org

The comedian

RUSSELL BRAND Following his film Get Him to the Greek, the lewd-tongued dandy voices drum-thrashing Easter Bunny in live-action-meets-animation flick, Hop (out on 1 April). Then he takes the reins in a role closer to his former lothario self as a playboy in the remake of the Dudley Moore comedy, Arthur (out on 22 April).

10 things WE LOVE

A bite-sized look at the best things to see and do this month

The festival

COACHELLA With headliners Kings of Leon, Arcade Fire, The Strokes and Kanye West (plus sets from, among others, Lauryn Hill, Duran Duran, The National, PJ Harvey and Robyn), this Californian festival kicks off the outdoor music season. Check asos.com for the best festival fashion. ☞ 15-17 April, coachella.com

The sounds

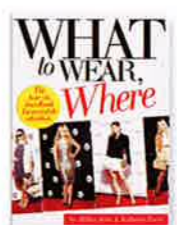

KATY B With several hits under her belt, the Brit singer, who had a hand in bringing Dubstep to the masses, releases her debut album, On a Mission. A mix of garage, funk and R&B, Peckham's golden girl will top your download wish list. ☞ Katy B's album is out on 4 April

The film

SUCKER PUNCH Vanessa Hudgens, Jena Malone and Abbie Cornish kick butt in a film dubbed by its director Zach Snyder as 'Alice in Wonderland with machine guns'. It's a comic book-style fantasy that follows Babydoll's (Emily Browning) imagination across a futuristic dystopia as she seeks to escape a '50s asylum. ☞ Out on 1 April

The feeling

NOSTALGIA Cinema is having a trip down memory lane - Twilight director Catherine Hardwicke jumps aboard the cape trend with gothic fairytale Red Riding Hood, animation Winnie the Pooh guarantees whimsy and honey in equal measure, while the remake of Footloose (starring newcomer Kenny Wormald) is this month's guilty pleasure. ☞ All out on 15 April

The style guide

WHAT TO WEAR, WHERE The How-To Handbook For Any Style Situation by Hillary Kerr and Katherine Power [£16.99, Abrams] Kerr and Power of WhoWhatWear.com provide the essential guide for all your social occasions, dishing out tips and advice for real girls' bodies.

The face

LEIGHTON MEESTER From scheming queen of the Upper East Side to deranged, obsessive stalker, Leighton Meester doesn't do characters by halves. See the Gossip Girl star go postal as a student with dangerous 'single white female' issues, opposite newcomer Minka Kelly, in scream-fest The Roommate. Run for your life, Chuck!
